GRAND RAPIDS HERALD. NO. 16 PEARL STREET.

Exclusive Horning Service of the United Press. TRANS OF SUSCEIPTION. Paily, excepting Sundays, one pear Delly and Sundays, one year

Daily and Sundays, per month BY CARACES IN THE CITE.

TELEPHONES.

miring Tan Henal D corred at their

NEW YORK OFFICE:

MONDAY, MAY 5, 1888

WEATHER BULLETIN. Washington, May 7.—For Lover Michigan: Fair; slightly warmer; winds secoming southerly. GODSEND IN DISGUISE. In the all-absorbing discussion of the Wall street "pinch" the conservative writers unite in holding it to have been a godsead in disguiss. Bradstreet's thus comments on it. "At the very close of Friday's excited and panicky stock market a better feeling, with a decided recovery in values, made its appearance. This, it would seem, was due in a large measure to a realization on the part of the financial and speculative public of the baseless

"It would appear that the local public failed to come into the market as buyers of securities to the extent which the temporary low level of values justified, the hesitation on this score being due no doubt to the general fear that the influence of the existing silver legislation and the extension of financial uncertainty to the mercantile community nature of their preceding demoraliza-

would result in further trouble. Europe, however, was a large buyer of securities, purchases from that quarter breaking down the exchange market and rendering gold shipments an impossibility for the time being, while there is no doubt that the largest people in Wall street railied to the support of the interests threatened with disaster, and thus confined what might otherwise have developed into a general panic to a severe and perhaps beneficial liquidation in securities where inflation had previously existed.

COST TO MICHIGAN.

Michigan will undoubtedly reap immense profit from its exhibit at the world's fair, but Michigan will pay for it to the extent of millions. Just how many persons will visit the great exposition from Michigan cannot be approximately estimated. It is within a reasonable conjecture to place the number as high as 200,000.

If this number shall visit the fair the transportation to and from Jackson Park will average at least $10 for each individual. This alone will aggregate $2,000,000. The expense of maintenance and sight-seeing at the fair will not fall below an average of $5 per day. If the average stay be placed at ten days, the total cost for 200,000 persons at & per day will be $10,000,000, or a total expense of $12,000,000.

To remove all manner of doubt as to the accuracy of the total drain from Michigan, the above total may be divided so as to make the aggregate expense only $6,000,000. This is an enormous amount of money to withdraw from the circulation of Michigan. Its significance will be understood at the beginning of next winter. How will it he returned? What has Chicago and the world's fair to offer us in lieu of it? Nothing but the gratification of curiceity, the enlargement of individual minds and the advertisement of our resources as a state. Are these returns

ANXIOUS TO QUIT.

Much has been said by democrats about the attempts of the republican assistants of the departments to retain their offices under a democrat administration that has no foundation what

As a matter of fact, about the first official documents that were brought to the attention of the members of the eahinet after they assumed office were the resignations of their republican assistants, many of whom had made business arrangements which made their remaining in office an inconvenience to

There may be one or two of these men who are trying to keep their offices. men continued to hammer and saw just but the most of them are just as anxious to get their resignations accepted as the of such a discrimination between toil pointments; but they cannot, without of both sabhatarian and sinner, being discourteens, demand that their resignations be immediately accepted. and that is why they are mailing as patiently as thar can the pleasure of the heads of the departments.

FRACTURED INDUSTRIALS.

Of course Honey Clews muribes the recent flurry in Wall street to the long continued drain of gold from this come try and the remitant feeling of financial insecurity among the hankers.

As everybody knows the fracture came to "industrial" stocks, but it did not actend to real industry. The "industrials, Mr. Clews says, have constituted a large proportion of the speculaties transactions on the earliance during recent years and have been inflated. Panance contemplating a visit to the tiemanly embezzier. "Why not call it a the writer of this article that it must be state-room?"—Indianapolis Journal.

say conservative estimate of their intriasic value. Owing to the unsound basis of their organization, Shey have found little lodgement among investors, and have been principally an instrument of speculation as between the original holders and outside speculators.

"Under these circumstances, they have always been treated as unsatisfac tory market collateral, and consequently the recent calling in of loans has very sharply discriminated against them The event is nothing more than has been expected in the event of such conditions as have now happened, and among conservative men the event is viewed rather as a drastic form of relief than as a real disaster. The break climinates a long-felt element of danger from the market and gives to securities of higher intrinsic merit a fair chance for realizing their true value.

"Outside the 'industrials,' the market has stood up remarkably well. The entire list has been sympathetically affected; but there is good reason to hope these derangements will prove only temporary. The railroads are conceded to be in excellent condition and the market is by no means over-supplied with that class of stocks."

ZEAL OF GRESHAM.

Political converts have been since there were political parties more zealous than the old party war horses, and Secretary Gresham has proved that he is no exception to the rule. He has made more changes in the important positions in the state department than have been made in any other department.

What makes this all the more striking is that it has been an unwritten rule of that department since it was established that no changes should take place on account of a change in the head of the department, with the exception of the two or three men whose relations with the ecretary are of a confidential nature, and that unwritten rule has been observed by all of the secretaries except Gresham.

He, although only two months in office, has left only one important place unchanged third assistant secretaryand the reason for that exception prob ably lies in his inability to find a demo crat possessing the peculiar qualifica tions needed to perform the duties of Mr. Adee, the present third assistant.

SUPERINTENDENT CARR never before longed for a "sub" as he did yesterday. to make a reply to the presentation speech by President Flannigan. He atempted to "justify" his line of surprise but was compelled to fill his "stick" with long primer "slugs" of gratitude, and was relieved to find "30" before he broke the "form" and "pied" the sentiments that tugged away at his heart. The printers are prouder of the handsome badge they presented him than a small boy is of his first pair of red top boots, and Mr. Carr participates in their pride.

PROBABLY the most comprehensive re port of the opening of the world's fair, distance from the scene and other obstacles considered, appeared in the New York World. That greatest of all dailies printed a special in Chicago on the Mail presses, consisting of sixteen pages, which was profusely illustrated, giving as complete a kaleidoscopic view of the great event as was given in the incomparably complete Chicago newspapers CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW is called upon to mourn the death of his wife. She was little known to the outside world, but within the circles where her influence as a christian and samaritan was felt she occupied an exalted position. In his hour of sorrow the civilized world will sympathize with Mr. Depew, for he is one of the inseparable ornaments of modern civilization.

PADEREWSKI has gone home. He told a reporter that he was disgusted with the Chicago manufacturers, who played him a "tirty trick." He also remarked that he had raked together $130,000 good American dollars from his pompadour piano playing panegyries. The New York women sent him away amid flowers and plaudits. May this be the last of Paderewski.

WHILE the dear women at Chicago were shedding tears and declaring that Mrs Palmer is "their queen," the dear women of England were preparing to knife Lady Somerset and depose her from the presidency of the English W. C. T. U. The dear women are more reconrectul in diplomacy and statecraft

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND has found it necessary to issue an order suspending personal interviews with applicants for office. It's a mighty good thing that the Grand Rapids delegation visited Wash ington early in the spring. Had it waited until summer that pathetic story of one visitor's "tears" would never have

Yestenney the world's fair gates were closed to visitors, but an army of workif it were Saturday. The absurdity democrat office seekers are to get ap | and pleasure must provoke the contempt

The English home rule obstructionists proposed to make thirteen objections to the bill and the speaker declared them cut of order. The "boodoo" will not work against the great Irish relief bill.

Numarayan readers will be delighted to know that another section of the Briggs' case will shortly appear. The far advocasse compared to the inteminable embrogist is simply a motion to let?

COMMISSIONER BRAININ IN WAll placed on the solice beard committees. He is now in a position to think.

rule of extortion is broken. The price of stowed chicken has been reduced from 80 to 75 cents. Tissue paper sand wiches have dropped from 27 to 25 cents.

Prox the drowning of the young roman in the river yesterday others will be cautioned against like careless toss when pleasure riding in unriverworthy boats.

HIT AND MISS BRIEFS

The foreigners were astonished at the magnificent display of the arts of war made by Uncie Sam's naval review, but just let them wait till they see the dis-play of arts of peace at the big fair. They will see in what consists the real greatness of the United States. St.

Mrs. Potter Palmer did not have a rea good chance to vindicate the nail driving capacity of her sex today. The golde nail which marked the completion of the woman's building at the world's fair was a nail but in name, and no hammer was used to drive it home. - Kansas City

It is a great mistake to say that patriotism is a lost art. It may be too fine and rare a thing for everyday wear, but just consider the tremen of it on festivals and in speeches. Baltimore American

"The typical orator," according to ex-Senator Ingalls, has disappeared from public life. Perhaps he has become a Kansas City Journal.

It has been stated that anything com parable to the naval display in Hampton roads has rarely occurred in the history of the world's navies. - Cincinnati Com-Bostonians are wont to refer to Chicago as a low town. This does not refer either to its buildings or its world's fair prices, however .- St. Louis Globe Demo-

STATE PRESS SENTIMENT.

The resolution introduced in the house authorizing the governor to appoint a historian of the world's fair, upon the recommendation of a suitable person by the board of world's fair managers, to keep tab on Michigan's participation in the exposition, at a salary of $1,500 a year, until March 1, 1895, looks upon its face like the creation of a useless office to make a soft snap for somebody as yet in the back ground.—Lansing Repub-

If the members of the legislature had had their experience at the world's fair opening before they voted on the $30,000 extra appropriation it would never have passed. They were all more or less dis-appointed and disgusted with the crowd, the weather, the incomplete arrange-ments and the lack of courtesy with which they were treated.—Petoskey Democrat.

High world's fair officials, playing the Caliph of Bagdad act, visited some of the restaurants incognito and their wal-lets were duly depleted. They propose now to stop the extertion, and the publie will applaud every time they put a leech or extortioner under the axe.— Muskegon Chronicle.

The Michigan legislature, with few exceptions, attended the dedication of Michigan building at the world's fair, as was right and proper; they paid their own expenses, which was also as it should have been.—Grand Ledge Inde-

With whisky at 25 cents a drink on the Columbian exposition grounds there is very little inducement for southerners to visit the fair, and the small appropriations made by those states seems to have been timely.-Saginaw Courier-Herald.

That Kansas "schoolmarm" is not the first intelligent person who has mistaken ex Senator John J. Ingalls for a crazy man .- Detroit Free Press.

POINTS ABOUT MEN.

Victor Baillot, a Frenchman who served with Napoleon at Waterloo and vas left for dead on the battlefield, cap tured by the English, and, after spend ing a year in a Plymouth, England, hospital, was sent home in what the doctors termed the last stages of consumption, recently celebrated his 100th birthday in his native village in the Yonne.

Prince Bismarck, who has recently commenced to countenance the anti Semitic movement in Germany and Austria, has Hebrews among his imme-diate ancestors. His mother was the daughter of a converted Hebrew by the name of Anastasius Menken, who was one of the favorite bureaucrats of King Frederick the Great.

A memorial is to be erected to John fferts, who died lately at Flatbush, L. I, in a house occupied by his family for the last hundred years, on property ceded to his ancestors under a patent from the Dutch government and afterward confirmed by the English crown.

Dr. Thomas W. Evans, the Paris dentist whose fame was world-wide in Eugenie's day, is about to erect a home for American girls who go to the French capital to study. During the course of his long residence in Paris Dr. Evans has given $50,000 to benevolent and charitable institutions

E. A. Westcott a Hartford lawyer has been requested by the Unitarian Congregational society of that city not to attend its meetings, on the ground that his attendance is in no way hopeful to them or to him. Mr. Westcott, it seems, The late Sir Edwin Abercromby Dash-wood was the premier baronet of Great Britain, his baronetey having been the first created after the union of England with Scotland.

Sir Edwin Arnold once said that if he were at liberty to choose his erx and country he would be an American

ALLEGED TO BE FUNNY.

Father to son who has failed in his examination three times) I made a mistake in sending you to college, ight to have apprehticed you to ocksmith or some other traile Son My dear father, I have often THINTERN has been knocked out again. | thought the same, especially when I have been out at night and have forgot ten my latchkey. Fliegende Blatter.

The company ought to charge by weight said the cross conductor to the Dispound passenger who pushed into a crowded car.

It it did,"replied the latter, "it would owe me #1 every time I ride on the line. the wait I have to suffer before a car comes along. - Pittsburg Chronicle. You say your boy is a somnambul-

You gets up in the night."
He's a good deal different from my boy. I can't get him up in the morning.

"Well, here is your cell," said the "Please don't call it a cell," said the gen-

DAY AT THE RESORTS

More Than 12,000 Pleasure Seekers Visited Reed's Lake.

ADMIRED THE NEW PAVILION

In Spite of Its Unfinished Condition It le Popular -- At North Park and John Ball Park.

Yesterday was spring. The calendar would prove this if any verification were needed, but the mathematics of the calendar cannot always be relied upon. It has the unblushing effrontery to insist that spring began April 22, when the sun is supposed to cross the line; but everybody knows it didn't. The shameless old god of day played a shabby trick on the astronomers, and he has hardly showed his face since, until yesterday. It was Sunday and the old rascal repented. The night patrolmen and the belated newspaper men caught sight of his boiled-lobster face as they were going home in the early hours of the norning, long before the weary sleepers had turned over for the coveted last nap. He peeped up over the eastern hills, and surveyed the city with a curious air, for it had been so long since he had a good look at it that he was not sure he could recognize it at a first glance. Then he apologized for his escapades, and flooded the city with a glow of summer sun-shine. Yesterday was all the spring that Grand Rapids has had, and the day should be given the homage of the sea-

It Was Appreciated. Probably if the day had realized how it would have been appreciated it would have come earlier in the year. The change from the raw, wet, drizzly, rheumatic November-like weather which has been shivering in mackintosh and storm overcoat, was too marked to pass un overcoat, was too marked to pass un-noticed. The poet and the sentimenal-ist have had much say about winter's lingering in the lap of spring; but the hoary old reprobate did nothing of the kind this year. He not only refused to flirt with the fair maid of May; but he drove her from her throne, and forced her to change her rosy blush of innocence for a sealskin sacque and woolen hosiery. That's the sort of tyrant that 1883's winter showed himself to be. That's the reason everybody hopes his past.

But that has nothing to do with the way Grand Rapids showed its apprecia-tion of the first spring-like day of the Crowds at the Lake. As early as 9 o'clock yesterday morn-ing the Reed's lake cars were uncom-fortably crowded. But there was a chilling wind that deterred many of the easure seekers. In the afternoon, however, it was as beautiful a May day as anybody could wish and fully 12,000 persons visit the pretty little resort that nestles in the hills to the southeast of the city. The capacity of the street cars was taxed to accommodate the gay throngs of visitors. They filled the seats and stood on the running boards and crowded the platforms. Sometimes they were three deep, and frequently a man held his wife and family on his lap in order that they might not be compelled to stand. Other men held their prespec-tive wives and families. Pretty girls sat on their escorts' knees and attempted to look unconcerned. Even the dudes that stard on the rear platform and smoke cigarettes became accustomed to the semi-affectionate sights in front of them and made no comments. The conducweather and rang up sixty fares to the trip without a grumble.

The New Pavilion.

At the lake the new pavilion was the especial object of interest. It was thrown open for the first time and every one of the 12,000 visitors inspected it. In spite of its unfinished condition, it was universally admired. All the afternoon the long elevated promonade from the pavil-ion to the lake was a wilderness of pretty girls and dazzling spring cos-tumes. The interior of the building is not completed yet. Even the monster soda fountain, which is the pride of Warren Swetland's heart, was not ejecting lemon and crushed strawberry flavors, but it will next Sunday.

Wurzburg's band rendered choice se lections during the afternoon, and the seats around the band stand were never empty.

Gathering Wild Flowers.

The walks and driveways about the grounds are not completed yet, but a week of pleasant weather will see them finished. Thousands visited the woods about the lake and stripped the banks of their wild flowers. Bright-cheeked maidens wandered in from the woods, their hands filled with spring beauties, hepaticas, blood roots and adder tongues Here and there was a violet, first of the erason—the "Johnny jump-up" of I the irrepressible school boy—which had pushed its pretty head through the dead grass and leaves and smiled in spite of the raw May winds that had swept over it. The steamers on the lake did a good business and ploughed through the clear water with all the easy elegance of a man of war at a naval review. The sur face of the lake was dotted with row boats and a few graceless sons of Belial fished for bass in the early hours of the The coy and diminutive bathing suit was not in demand vesterday. Nobody but a sanitary crank or a small boy would think of going in ewimming a this time of the year, and even the small boy did not have the courage to brave the less waters of the lake. The trim and diffident maiden who believes swim ming is just ten lovely for anything and wants somebody to show her how to kick and paddle, was also present but she had no longings for Manhattan she had no longings for Manhattan beach. The summer gardens were vis-ited by large crowds, but need of the visitors were too much interested in the new pavilion and the promenade to care

All the sight asecs of the city did not to Reed's lake, however, Hundreds rigited North park and enjoyed the excellent busting on the river and the pretty eights from the pavilion. Others ere at John Ball park, eager to see how the three legged deer and I M. Turner a ter for two decides. The woods in spring flowers and the meltire returned laden with exquisite bunches of not go to one of the parks or resorts yes terday missed the most pleasurable opportunity of this backward spring.

REVIEWS-Often it has comerred to the mind of enchanting to the eye to witness the re- | day.

views, such as recently given by the naval squadron in New York hartor, where the flage of all nations floated from the mast heads of the noble ships of war, representing the power behind the throne to which such vessels belonged. Net only are the colors and devices displayed in the make up of the banners, from a commodore's pennant down to the streamer on a sloop, evidown to the streamer on a sloop, evidences of artistic skill, but they also in dences of artistic skill, but they also in-spire the beholder with a national pride which makes a patriotic heart throb-within the breast. Who has not felt the tingling of the warm blood flowing through the veins upon beholding the stars and stripes floating in the breeze on a Fourth of July celebration? Or on dress parade, or review of different character, military or civic? How our character, military or civie? How our pride rises when beholding such re-views. And it is about reviews we in-tended to write, but of a different class. To enumerate them all is impossible in this short review but one of the best and most appreciated review we ever had occasion to preciated review we ever had occasion to review, was the reviewing of some news-paper articles appearing in the dailies of this city of about a year ago, when the famous Jocky Brown's will case was described in their columns; also the case of Fred Leonard a little later on. Both cases were well colored and of curious construction, and it will do any one good to review the articles of a year ago and compare them with the sequel as now appearing in this last week's newspapers where the announcement is made that the supreme court of this state reviewed the decisions of the local courts of this city and declared the will of the former invalid, and in the latter case it resulted in being sent to an asylum. In both cases was a large amount of money involved. Both reviews may be right; but it is interestreviews may be right; but it is interesting reading for those who review the papers that contained the accounts of the trials as they appeared at the time and the sequel of today. In both cases the wills were broken, that of the dead as well as that of the living. Reviewing the cases by the light of the past inspired this review by

ONE AT LEISURE.

Nick Young Calls the Umpires Down in an Emphatic Manner.

TO AID BASE-RUNNIG.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—N. E. Young, president of the National Base Ball league, as the result of his observations at the games played thus far this season in Washington, and in pursuance to appeals upon the subject from other cities, has addressed the following letter to umpires, relating to the construction to be placed upon rules 27 and 30:

"I have called your attention to rules 27 and 30 and impressed upon you the

"I have called your attention to rules 27 and 30 and impressed upon you the importance of their strict enforcement. It is also equally important that your rulings should be uniform. The patrons of base ball enjoy base-running and the past flagrant violations of these rules must be stopped. The pitcher should be permitted to step out to throw to any have revisiting he step out to those the step. base providing he steps out directly to-wards the base to which he intends to throw and makes no forward motion to deceive the base runner. Any motion which does, in fact, deceive the baserunner, either intentional or not, is a balk. The rule is clearly made for the base runner's protection and to protect and improve one of the best and most enjoyable features of the game."

INTERNATIONAL REGATTA.

Chicago Navy is Making Prepa rations for a Great Event.

CHICAGO, May 7.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Chicago navy last night important steps were taken in preparation for the regatta to be held at Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, August 14 to 24. It was decided to send Frank Pratt abroad to confer with the crews of Oxford, Cambridge, Berlin, Dublin and other points relative to their participation. Another delegate will be sent to Australia within the next two weeks. Yale and Harvard have accepted the invitation on the conditions that foreign crews attend, and in unofficial correspondence Oxford and Cambridge have agreed to come if American crews participate. A supreme college trophy in the shape of a gold cup will be awarded, to be rowed for by college crews only.

BIG HORSE SHOW.

The National Live Stock Association Will Make a Spread.

Washington, May 7.—A live stock show and blood horse meeting will be held at Benning's race course from May 2) to June 17, under the auspices of the National Live stock association. Horses, cattle, sheep, hogs and poultry are coming in from all parts of the United States and there are already 2,300 entries. Secretary Morley of the association of the secretary for the statement that ation is authority for the statement that all of the best stock in the eastern United States will be exhibited before being sent to the world's fair. The premiums to be awarded will be the argest ever given in the United States. A series of daily races will be one of the features of the exhibition.

Will Play the Season Out. KANNAS CITY, Mo., May 7.—Those who were interested in the plan for the formation of a western base ball league were forced today to abandon it because of the refusal of St. Joseph, Topeka and Wichita to come in. At a meeting held today it was decided that Kansas City, Denver, Puebio and Omaha should put independent teams in the field and play the season out without regular schedule.

YESTERDAY'S BALL GAMES At Cincinnati-

Cincin ti.4 0 0 4 2 3 0 0 2-16 16 5 Louist'e 0 0 1 0 1 1 3 1 0-7 11 5 Batteries - Dwyer and Vaughn, Lucid, Classen and Grim. Umpire-Emslie. At St. Louis -

Batteries Breitehntein and Pietz, Mack and Schreiver. Umpire-McQuaid.

League Standing Following is the standing of the League

Club,	Won.	Toronto.	Pr.Ce.
Cleveland	con the	21	714
Washington	3	2:	603
Cincinnati		3	667
New York	4	8	571
St. Lonis	5	3	405
Promit an	3	3	5(4)
Philiotelphia	3	3	500
Chicago	1	6	400
Boston or recessor			429
Pittsburg	2	2	4(10)
Raitrmore accessors		5	275
Laurieville . recommend		- 6	148

New York, May 7 Hotel keepers representing nearly all the hotels in this city accompanied by their wives, daughters and friends, left on a special vontibule limited train over the New York Central road at a clock this even ing, bound for Cincinnati, where the Hotel association takes place on Tree

Bonifaces on the Road.

MOTEL CHATS.

G. de Weckerlin, the Holland minister to Washington and George Birkhoff Jr., the consul general in Chicago were driven about the city yesterday by John Steketes. This morning they will visit the great furniture factories and homorrow will go to Holland Zeeland and other Ottawa county towns that have row will go to Holland. Zeeland and other Ottawa county towns that have other Ottawa county towns that have a large Holland population. "I am de-lighted with Grand Rapide and what I have seen of its people" said Mr. Weck-erlin in The Morton last evening. "I had so idea that I should find such a lively, energetic prosperous city." We were told by Mr. Steketer today that there are 20,000 Hollanders in Grand there are 20,000 Hollanders it Grand Rapids" said Mr. Birkhoff. I confess that I was a little surprised at the figures, although Holland population here. The immi-grants seem to have flocked to this per-tion of western Michigan and probably no other part of the United ! no other part of the United States will show so large a percentage of inhalitants of Dutch descent. They tell us that the Hollanders of Grand Rapids are a very industrious, economical, hardworking people, who are good, respectable citizens and who, as a class, own their own homes. I think this is characteristic of the immigrants from that country. They are quick to see the advanttry. They are quick to see the advant tages that the new world offers them and are equally quick to avail themselves of them. There are an immease number of Hollanders in America and in the Dutch East India colonies, but still the country shows no signs of being depopulated. In fact if it were not for the heavy emigration there wouldn't be enough room to contain them all. The enough room to contain them all. The Dutch family is not like the American. The father and mother are not satisfied with one or two children. It is no uncommon thing to find a dozen children in the family and under such circumstances population increases rapidly rapidly."

Campbell Chapin and G. Frank Merriam of Springfield, Mass., are guests in the Morton. They are paper manufacturers and dropped into the city to look after the general candition of trade. "There isn't much new in the paper business," said Mr. Merriam last evening. "The demand for high grade paper, linen and bond, is good. Those are the two varieties for which there is the greatest call. In note paper there are several new shades. But the color of note paper is always a fad that of note paper is always a fad that changes as often as the direction of the wind. The New York stationers obtain wind. The New York stationers obtain a consignment and make it up for the trade. Society buys it at fancy prices and for weeks revels in green, or blue, or Turkey red, or any other color that happens to be the correct thing." "There is a great competition among manufacturers in the production of new colors, however," said Mr. Chapin. "It is always an experiment that must be tried before its success can be deter-mined. When a new shade is found it does not last very long. The public de mands something else and the manufac-turer has to try another experiment."

BOOKS AND MAGAZINES.

"Utterly Mistaken" is one of thes charming romances in which the triumph of right over wrong is emphasized by the reward of fidelity. Annie Thomas is the architect of the entrancing tale and it is needless to say the work is so superbly wrought as the skill of a master pen can conjure. Cassell & Co., pub lishers; price in cloth, $1. Palmer, Meech & Co.

"Muscular Exercises for Health and was in his Plat year, and seventy years of his life was spent as a minister of the hands of every woman and girl in this country. It embedies the experiences of a life time in the field of physical training and gives to its read rect understanding of the rect understanding of the pre-requeite to health. Miss Newcomb has so arranged her work into departments that one may learn the secrets of acquiring perfect physical development without

In the course of a somewhat extensive fir the course of a somewhat extensive discussion of the unrivaled magnitudes and importance of the World's Colum-bian Exposition, the editor of the Re-view of Reviews, in the May number, makes it perfectly clear that a visit to the great show will not be attended by danger to life and limb from any cause.

"Stories From the Rabbin" is a work by Abram S. Issaca. Ph. D., published by Charles L. Webster & Co. It is a fascinating resume of the sayings re-corded in the Talmud and Midrast. Mr., Issacs has colored his sketches with enough of virile beauty to make them fetching. Price $1. Ealon & Lyons.

Unknown to thousands, Thomas Car-lyie's youngest sister is a resident of this western continent. This interesting fact the Ludies' Home Journal has discovered, and the home-life and person-ality of "the last of the Carlyles" are most interestingly pictured and de-scribed in the May issue.

The short stories of the first issue of McClure's Magnine will be written by Joel Chandler Harris, Mrs. Robert Louis Stevenson and Gilbert Parker. An early issue of the magazine will contain stories by Thomas Hardy and Conan Doyle.

St. George Rathbone is the author of "Major Mattersen," current issue of the "Idle Moments" series by the Price Molife and manners. Price in paper, 50 cents. Eaton & Lyons.

The Price McGill company's Golden Library series is continued in "Monsieur Nussen" by Grace Howard Poirce, a compilation of bright sketches taken from the leading magazines.

Mr. Hatton's new novel, "Under the Great Seal," is in every respect equal to his most famous story, "By Order of the Czar." The Cassell Publishing com-pany are the publishers.

The New England Magazine for May contains an interesting biographical sketch of Pietro Mascagni, the famous composer of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "L' Amico Fritz." Walter Camp has written a book on base ball. It is published by the American Sports Publishing company of No. 241 Broadway, and it sells at the moderate figure of 10 cents. "The Squire," a paper-covered novel ette by Mrs. Parr, is announced by Cas-sell & Co. It is a brightly written story replete with delicate imagery. Palmer, Meech & Co.

The exhibition number of Scribner's Magazine in the contribution which the conductors of that periodical make to the great exposition at Chicago. To Cassell's "Unknown" Library has just been added "Squire Heliman and Other Stories," by Juhani Ako. These stories are unusually clever Oldest Active Pastor Dead. WOOSTER, Ohio, May 7.—The Rev. Dammerer, the oldest active member of the ministry in the United States, died

SPRINGTIME HAS INDEED COME

And with it has come the apple worm, the plum bug, the foliage destroyer. You all remember what ravage worms made on foliage trees last summer, and the same thing will be repeated if precautions are not now taken to prevent it. The proper spraying of trees in the springtime, when the buds begin to unfold, will nip in the bud as it were, the lives of the lasects that would later prove such an annoying destructive power.

Were made expressly to prevent the ravages of the insects that infest all trees and to preserve their fruit and foliage. These pumps can be used not alone for the purpose for which they were first designed, but also for washing windows, sprinkling lawns and for fire extinguishers. They are nest, bandy and very durable.

HAVE YOU A WATER COOLER?

If you haven't you will want and need one soon. We have a nice line of them. Jewett's New Era Coolers have no rivals, PARROT CAGES, MOLE TRAPS. RAT AND MOUSE TRAPS. FEATHER DUSTERS, DOOR MATS. FOOT SCRAPERS, FIBRE TUBS. WASH BASINS AND PAILS.

We present an endless variety of everything a house keeper wants, and al prices that make glad the heart and purse.

